HOLLISTER, CALIFORNIA – 6/3/10 – On 6/1/10, Hollister Police officers responded to the 1600 block of Citation Dr. in Hollister regarding the report of a vehicle burglary. The passenger window on the victim vehicle was smashed, and the victim's purse was stolen. Included in the missing items were personal identification cards and bankcards.

During subsequent investigation, officers learned that the victim's credit cards had been used several times throughout the day at locations throughout Hollister.

Officers were able to locate surveillance footage from one of those transactions at the 560 Tres Pinos Rd. (Dollar Tree store) and have obtained a picture of the suspect (above). The suspect is described as a white female, about 25-35, heavy set, with dark curly hair.

As of yet, officers have been unable to identify the suspect in these fraud cases, and are asking for the public's help.
